Advanced, Pre-Advanced & Intermediate Levels

Genevieve Gay started her dance career at 4 years of age. Since graduating from Dillard School of Performing Arts, she has devoted the last 30 years as a dance educator in the South Florida area.

In addition to being assistant director at many nationally recognized studios, she also has judged many local competitions. Miss Genevieve has had the privilege of studying with many masters teachers such as David Howard, Ronn Daniels, Judy Bassing, Frank Hatchett and Gus Giordano.

As a student, she was a national competition winner and has also performed professionally on stage in various shows in the South Florida area.

As a dance teacher her students have excelled and won national awards. She has received many choreography awards thru the years in all forms of dance.

Her versatility as an instructor in Ballet, Jazz, Tap, Lyrical and Acrobatics is highlighted by her passion for teaching young dancers and the degree to which she offers her expertise.
